2010 Small Business Seminar Series

The Guam Chamber of Commerce
Small Business Focus & Development Committee
In cooperation with the Guam Small Business Development Center presents

Protecting Yourself and Your Business Against Fraud

Did you know that the opportunity to commit fraud is psychologically more acceptable when employees believe that their dishonest acts will go undetected and unprosecuted? It is critical to be able to reduce the temptation of employee fraud by implementing control measures and developing policies and procedures to combat fraud. Knowing and being able to detect the many types of schemes will also help protect your business. The objective of this seminar is to...

- ❖ Cover a prominent theory of why internal fraud occurs,
- ❖ Identify a vast spectrum of internal fraud schemes,
- ❖ Provide control measures, policies and procedural tips to mitigate your risk.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 22, 2010

8:00 a.m. - 10:30 a.m. @ Outrigger Guam Resort

Featuring:

Nacia Atalig, Bank of Hawaii
